HUMAN DEVELOPMENT & FAMILY STUDIES (HDFS) 2024-2025
Graduation Checklist for Windward Community College

Academic Subject Certificate (ASC) – 12 credits

The Human Development and Family Studies (HDFS) academic subject certificate focuses on supporting positive human development over the life course in diverse economic and cultural contexts. HDFS helps people identify and develop important life skills for effective management of personal, family, and community resources, enabling families to thrive and lead healthy and happy lives. Students are prepared for positions in family service agencies; family life and parenting education programs; children’s, youth, and gerontology programs; childcare and early childhood education centers; and consumer affairs agencies.

This is not an official document. Check catalog for course description and prerequisite. Check course core designation at the Class Availability website. Course core designation may differ at the various UH campuses. See your academic counselor if you need help.
